

Help

& where to get it.

ALAMEDA COUNTY LOCAL ASSISTANCE CENTER (LAC) FOR KATRINA EVACUEES

6955 Foothill Boulevard, 3rd floor
Adult and Aging Services Department at
Eastmont (Mall) Town Center Self-Sufficiency Center
Monday-Friday, 9 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Alameda County Social Services Agency and the Health Care Services Agency in coordination with the American Red Cross and other community organizations has opened a drop-in "one-stop" Local Assistance Center for Hurricane Katrina evacuees now living in the County. Bus passes from Oakland Red Cross to LAC are available from the Red Cross, 3901 Broadway.

LAC GENERAL INFORMATION LINE:

(510) 577-5635 or 577-5640

SERVICES OFFERED TO HURRICANE KATRINA EVACUEES INCLUDE:

→ Assistance filing FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) claims → General Assistance
→ Food Stamps → Medi-Cal (Medicaid) → Enrollment in Women, Infants and Children (WIC Nutrition) Program
→ Mental health referrals → Primary & specialty health care referrals → Housing referrals → CalWORKs (employment and eligibility) → Assistance enrolling children into public schools → On-site child care

The assistance center is located near the Social Security Administration and other community resources.